

There is no assigned pre-reading for Law students. We would encourage you to enjoy a break from your studies following your exams, making your own reading choices. We look forward to welcoming you in October.